

This is a request that no type of forced copyright protection be required in digital television sets or settops. Once installed all distributors will push that have that feature enabled more times then it is disabled from their own unsupported and irrational fears.

Once enable it disallows end users from performing any type of court protected fair use practices such as time shifting or having purchased products interact with each other (for example, new settop box hooked to a new DVD home theater system).